

The no call list should be kept in place in the state of wisconsin. Consumers are bombarded enough with pitch men and women enticing us with things that we don't need and do little to increase the quality of our lives. The majority of them are rude and seem noy to understand the meaning of "I AM NOT INTERESTED".